

Cardiorespiratory Sciences/Respiratory Therapy Program

CSN
COLLEGE OF
SOUTHERN NEVADA

Thank you for your interest in the Cardiorespiratory Sciences/Respiratory Therapy Program. This multi-disciplined, multi-credentialed program prepares students in the disease management, education and life-sustaining care of individuals having deficiencies and abnormalities associated with the cardiopulmonary system. Graduates of this accredited program* have the opportunity to obtain credentials from many nationally recognized organizations including the National Board for Respiratory Care, Cardiovascular Credentialing International, and the American Heart Association.

With these credentials you could have a career as a Registered Respiratory Therapist. Going to school at the largest college in Nevada gives you tremendous resources in this field of study. And at CSN small class sizes are by design to allow you one-on-one attention, helping to ensure your successful completion in this program. Please read through this brochure to help direct you in your next step in the Cardiorespiratory Sciences Program.

Upon completion of the Cardiorespiratory Sciences Program you will receive an Associate of Applied Science Degree.
